—It is never safe to ride a bicycle during a thunder storm. The safest plan is to dismount and laying the machine flat, to stand some distance off till the lightning has ceased. Lightning is more apt to strike a cyclist while on his wheel than a man under a tree. At best, the rubber tires only partially insulate the wheel. If wet, the water along the electric current to run over the tire. The metal of the frame and the handlebars attract electric currents and the whole wheel is, in short a good conductor.

—The McClure Trio is the new paper that has been launched on McClure to fill the vacuum caused by the death of the Free Press of that village. Here's hoping that the vacuum so well filled by the new paper may contain enough richness to prevent a similar condition in the editor's pockets.

Something for the Home.
To make home pleasant the house should be supplied with such articles of household furniture as are necessary to make housekeeping as easy as possible. In hardware, J. Davis' store is supplied with all that is necessary and one of the latest new things is a plated water pitcher, the inside of which is silver plated and cannot rust, while the outside is nickel plated, and never tarnishes. The pitcher is non-breakable and while it costs a trifle more than the earthenware article, its beauty and lasting qualities make it very desirable.

Now that cold weather is coming on stoves are an essential article. In heaters the newest things are the Round Oak for soft or hard coal, wood or coke, while the Jewett Woodlight, the very latest front draft base burner for wood is a "a thing of beauty and a joy forever," as its lasting qualities are such that it does duty longer than any other stove on the market. Patronize home merchants and don't forget Davis.

Birthday Party.
On Saturday afternoon last a party of young friends of Mazie Rhoda were delightfully entertained at her home on Fifth street, the occasion being her eighth birthday. The young folks enjoyed themselves immensely and the occasion was one which marks a joyful event in their happy young lives. The souvenirs were celluloid book marks. Among those present were: Chester Mills, Gussie Kasemer, Charley Rosbach, Freddie Rosbach, Bernia Rosbach, Fred Brandhuber, Johnie Munger, Rudolph Wittman, Willie Hechler, Clarence Baird, Frankie Schwind, Alfred Rader, Ernest Hoffman, Earl Harbauer, Leonida Hoffman, Gussie Schlect, Willie Carnes, Russel Hartling, Charlie Rapp, Irene LaFarree, Francis Karr, Lena Redman, Hazel Trombla, Marion Ray, Margaret Ray, Edith Keller, Agnes Schwind, Mamie Rogers, Katie Rapp, Nellie Fuller, Ruth Lucas, Margarite Nicholas, Gertrude Caldwell, Lulu Schlect, Lottie Fink, Esther Schlect, Marjorie Cupp, Laura VanSickle, Helen Bowers, Edna Munger, Lillian Hoffman, Eva Hoffman, Verba Brandhuber, Aileen Trudeau. Regrets: Ethel Riggs, Roy, Ida and Mildred Blinn and Merlin Bowers.

Ended in a Row.
The Pearl Opera house was the scene of an event which will go down into history as a combination of low comedy, hot tragedy and spectacular burlesque presentation of the old, moth eaten and once respectable drama of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," the latest translation of which seemed to be "Ten Bar Rooms in one Night" with a jawing match thrown in. "Huebner and McDonalds Comedy players" were billed to present the above named drama on Tuesday night last. They were greeted with a small audience and early in the evening began filling up with beer in order to be in good shape to do the bar room scene. The play had evidently been re-written as Simon Slade was killed in the first act instead of waiting until the usual time in the fourth act. Mary Morgan who usually gets struck with a beer glass in the second act didn't wait for her cue, but struck out for Toledo before getting killed—evidently not being prepared to die so young. Simon Slade then revived in time to be killed by his son Frank in the last act, but Frank was too drunk to rap his papa on the noddle with the beer bottle and so Simon didn't die the second time. The play was too warm to last and broke up in a jawing match, the Manager announcing that those who were not satisfied could get their money at the box office but when they called for cash the Treasurer had moved out and left no address, and the company were left to get back to Toledo as best they could.

Several prominent Toledo gentlemen were present to witness the "rendition" of the drama, and a very prominent local manager of a Toledo Theatre was one of them. He said "there was a hot time in the old town that night," and whenever he wants genuine entertainment he will visit the Pearl Opera house.

MONTHLY SUFFERING.
Thousands of women are troubled at monthly intervals with pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides hips and limbs. But they need not suffer.

These pains are symptoms of dangerous derangements that can be corrected. The menstrual function should operate painlessly.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui makes menstruation painless, and regular. It puts the delicate menstrual organs in condition to do their work properly. And that stops all this pain. Why will any woman suffer month after month when Wine of Cardui will relieve her? It costs $1.00 at the drug store. Why don't you get a bottle to-day?

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. ROZENA LEWIS, of Denison, Texas, says: "I was troubled at monthly intervals with terrible pains in my head and back, but have been entirely relieved by Wine of Cardui."
